NEUTRAL / MIXED

2026-09-19 00:00–23:59 UTC · all times UTC · data from Binance, Bybit, OKX, Bitget, Gate + Twelve Data

THE DAY IN ONE LINE

Bitcoin and Ethereum rose modestly on steady volume, with open interest shrinking on Bitcoin despite high funding costs, as institutional Bitcoin ETF inflows offset mixed regulatory headwinds including Brazil's planned stablecoin settlement ban.

01 · PRICE & VOLUME

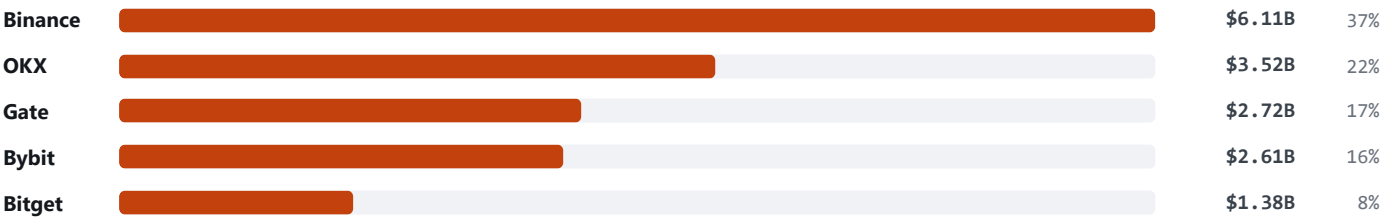

What every venue's price and volume did

The same two contracts on every exchange, for this UTC day. When the prices line up, nothing unusual is happening; a gap or a big volume difference is worth noticing.

BITCOIN (BTC PERPETUAL)

$81,225.60 +0.45% $80,800.00 — $81,990.00

Spread: $9.30 (0.0%) Total volume: $16.34B

ETHEREUM (ETH PERPETUAL)

$2,631.59 +0.78% $2,600.72 — $2,672.54

Spread: $0.28 (0.0%) Total volume: $17.52B

Bitcoin averaged +0.45% and Ethereum +0.78% across all five major venues, with prices agreeing closely (within ~0.4–1% spread). Binance and OKX led volume, with Binance alone clearing $6.1B in Bitcoin perps and $6.3B in Ethereum perps.

02 · POSITIONING

How traders were leaning

CS Gorkem T

CS Tarik O

Funding shows which side is paying to hold its position (positive = longs pay shorts). Open interest is how much money is in open bets; its change over the day shows money coming in or out. Long/short is how many accounts lean each way. Top L/S is the ratio among the largest traders. Taker B/S is the buy-to-sell ratio of market orders.

BITCOIN

VENUE	FUNDING (ANN.)	OPEN INTEREST	OI CHANGE	LONG/SHORT	TOP L/S	TAKER B/S	MARK
Bitget	+11.0%	$2.74B	–	–	–	–	$81,220.80
OKX	+11.0%	$2.48B	–	1.00	–	–	$81,221.30
Bybit	+11.0%	$4.60B	-2.4%	–	–	–	$81,217.97
Binance	+11.0%	$8.74B	–	0.90	1.98	–	$81,212.12
Gate	+9.6%	$5.39B	–	–	–	–	$81,217.47

ETHEREUM

VENUE	FUNDING (ANN.)	OPEN INTEREST	OI CHANGE	LONG/SHORT	TOP L/S	TAKER B/S	MARK
Bybit	+11.0%	$2.33B	–	–	–	–	$2,629.87
Bitget	+8.7%	$2.03B	–	–	–	–	$2,629.88
OKX	+6.9%	$1.62B	–	1.03	–	–	$2,629.86
Binance	+11.0%	$6.23B	–	2.13	1.59	–	$2,629.94
Gate	+4.5%	$3.21B	–	–	–	–	$2,628.95

Funding, open interest and mark price are point-in-time (as of 00:00 UTC), not daily figures.

Funding rates stayed elevated at 10.95% annualized (8-hour interval), indicating traders are still paying a steep premium to hold leveraged longs. However, Bitcoin's open interest fell 2.4% despite these high costs, suggesting cautious reduction of leverage. Long-to-short ratios were mixed across venues (Bitcoin closer to parity, Ethereum favoring longs on some exchanges), showing no clear directional consensus among traders.

THE THREE THAT MATTERED MOST

Bitcoin ETFs tap $433M inflow Friday, Fidelity leads institutional demand

US spot Bitcoin ETFs recorded $433 million in net inflows on Friday, September 19, with Fidelity's FBTC accounting for $310.7 million (71% of total). Over the broader week, Bitcoin ETF assets stood at $102.53 billion, with Fidelity and BlackRock capturing 97% of daily inflows. This signals continued institutional appetite despite earlier volatility.

Brazil blocks stablecoins from regulated cross-border payments starting October 1

Brazil's Central Bank (BCB) has barred electronic foreign exchange providers from using stablecoins or crypto to settle the offshore leg of regulated international payments, effective October 1, 2026 (Resolution BCB No. 561). The rule does not ban crypto ownership or trading, but prohibits institutional settlement flows. Firms like Wise, Nomad, and Braza Bank built stablecoin settlement into their cross-border pipelines and must switch to traditional FX channels.

Bastion wins conditional OCC approval for national trust bank charter

Stablecoin infrastructure company Bastion announced conditional approval from the US Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) to operate as Bastion Platforms National Trust Company on September 18, 2026. The charter enables fiduciary custody of USDC and other digital assets, white-label stablecoin wallet and issuance services, and direct minting/redemption—all under a single federal regulator. The bank cannot accept deposits or make loans.

07 · GLOSSARY

CS Gorkem T

CS Tarik O

Every term used today, in plain words

Basis (UTC-day or rolling-24h) — The time window over which a price or volume move is measured. UTC-day means one calendar day (00:00–23:59 UTC). Rolling-24h means the most recent 24-hour period, regardless of date boundaries.

Funding rate — The interest rate traders using leverage pay each other to hold positions on a futures exchange. When funding is positive and high, longs are paying shorts—a sign leverage is expensive and trader sentiment is bullish. Typically charged every 8 hours.

Leverage — Borrowing money to amplify the size of a trade. For example, 10x leverage means you control $10 of assets with $1 of your own capital. Higher leverage increases both gains and losses.

Liquidation — Forced closure of a leveraged position when the trader's margin (collateral) is exhausted due to losses. Liquidations can trigger sudden price moves as stop-loss orders cascade.

Long-to-short ratio (or long/short ratio) — The ratio of bullish (long) to bearish (short) accounts or positions on an exchange. A ratio above 1 means more traders are betting on price increases; below 1 means more are betting on decreases. Balanced ratios near 1 indicate mixed sentiment.

Mark price — The official settlement price used by an exchange to calculate profit/loss on futures contracts, typically the index price of the underlying asset (e.g., Bitcoin or Ethereum). Different from the last trade price.

Open interest — The total value of all active futures contracts on an exchange at a single moment. A rising open interest means more money is being deployed; falling open interest means traders are closing positions and reducing leverage.

Open-interest change — The percentage move in total open interest over a time period (e.g., one day). Falling OI with prices rising suggests a slow-down in leverage despite price momentum.

Stablecoin — A cryptocurrency designed to hold a fixed value (usually $1 USD per coin) through reserves or algorithmic means. Examples: USDC, USDT. Used for settlement and to avoid price volatility.

Venue — A cryptocurrency exchange or trading platform where futures contracts are offered (e.g., Binance, Bybit, OKX).

Volume (quote or base) — The total value or quantity of assets traded over a period. Quote volume is in USD; base volume is in the asset itself (e.g., BTC).
